SAN FRANCISCO EAST BAY CHAPTER

WISHES ONE AND ALL A HAPPY MIDSUMMER ON ITS 110th CONSECUTIVE MIDSUMMER FESTIVAL

The Swedish American Patriotic League, a congress of local organizations, is dedicated to promoting and perpetuating our common Swedish heritage. The League is grateful to all the officers and delegates of the League as well as to the officers and members of all constituent organizations for a century of selfless devotion and labor promoting the activities of Swedish Americans in the San Francisco Bay Area. We must pledge to continue their work and legacy for the benefit of future generations.

QUEEN

Kerstin Goins, who represents the Swedish Society of San Francisco, was born on May 25, 1978, and has lived in various areas of California. Her great-grandparents were Anna and Sven Svenson, her grandmother was Jane Swanson, and mother is Sandra Goins Armstrong. She spent many summers in Sveadal. Kerstin has said that Sveadal was a safe haven for her as a young child, since it was the only place she could run free. But her thoughts were never far from Sveadal during the school year, as she and her grandmother often talked about Sveadal.

Kerstin started her education in a small parochial school in Fremont, then attended public schools, from where she graduated in June, 1996. After graduation, she obtained her AA degree from community college. For a brief time she was at Chico State University, but due to the climate, transferred to San Jose State. In December 2003, she graduated with a BA in Business Psychology and a minor in Human Resource Management. While in college Kerstin worked in retail jobs. She is currently working in HR for a Bay Area precision die cutting manufacturer. College and work have led to less time spent in Sveadal.

1996 was both a delightful and sad year for Kerstin. She graduated from high school, and was elected Columbia at Midsummer, but her grandmother, Jane Swanson passed away that year.

Kerstin says: "I am honored to be the fifth Midsummer Queen in my family."

SVEA

Pernilla Elmengård, has been selected by Lindbergh Lodge #494, VOA. She was born December 12, 1984 in Borås, Sweden, which is located about 45 minutes east of Goteborg. Her family includes mother Erica, father Lars, stepmother Angelique, stepmormor Marina Johnson, brother Robert and sister Victoria.

Pernilla went to school in Borås from 1st-9th grade in Fristad, and 10th-12th grades in an Entrepreneurship program at Sven Erikson's Gymnasiet. which included 3 years education in economics, business, political science and cultural studies and 1 month in Nice, France, and then 6 weeks at Santa Rosa Junior College. In 2003 she moved to Los Altos to live with her father, stepmother and sister. She attended Foothill College where she received a certificate in Business International Studies this June. At the end of July Pernilla will return to Sweden, where she will enter an International Business program at the University of Uppsala.

Her hobbies are soccer, kickboxing, aerobics, walking and running. In Sweden she plays floor ball. Her greatest passion in life is traveling. Pernilla loves the cultural differences between people.

COLUMBIA

Rachel Fassl, 18 years old, represents the Swedish Men's Society of Oakland. Rachel just graduated from high school and is planning on attending Diablo Valley College in the fall and then transferring to a four-year college. She is planning on majoring in behavioral therapy for autistic children, becoming interested in this field after serving as a teaching assistant for the developmentally impaired class in middle school. She continues to see some of the students from that class.

Rachel's many hobbies include working with children, dancing, singing and soccer (which she played for 9 years when a knee operation put her on the sidelines). She is now an assistant coach for her little sister's soccer team.

Rachel is proud of her Swedish heritage that came from her farmor. Her many activities include ten years in the Vasablad Children's Club of Sveaborg Lodge and the last 5 years as the leader for the Children's Club. Some of her favorite things about being Swedish are: Midsummer at Sveadal as Sveaborg's Maid of Honor 2 years ago, the Lucia Fest where she was Lucia at the age of 13, and Spritz Cookies!

HU-Å-HEJ

John-Anders Persson

John-Anders is from Angermanland in Sweden. He continues the tradition of fiddling from his grandfather. He has played in bands in Sweden and Switzerland. Now living in the states, he continues his musical interests by playing the fiddle, flute, hardingfele, and sometimes singing. He also dances the hambo and tells the story that he learned to dance when he was a boy because that's where all the pretty girls were!

Valerie Thompson

Valerie was born in a Norwegian community in Minnesota and has been exposed to her heritage since birth through her family. Singing, fele, hardingfele, and dans are her loves and passions, well, that is, next to her Swedish husband John-Anders.

Leif Syrstad

Leif was born in Sør-Trondelag, situated about an hours travel south of Trondheim, Norway. Leif came with his family to the United States in 1965, bringing with him his music tradition from his home area. Leif plays the accordian and plays the music from his home primarily: inherrads-pols, valses, rheinlenders, schottis, and more, including his own compositions.

Instruments Played

The hardanger fiddle is the national instrument of Norway. It has 8-9 strings. Four on top and 4-5 underneath that resonate as the topstrings are played.

The blokkflote or recorder is decorated with roseing on the natural wood or it is sometimes painted red or blue. It has a sound sometimes reminiscent of the mountain summer pastures.

The fele or violin is played throughout the world as well as a mainstay in Scandinavian folk music.

The munnharpe or mungiga/trump-/jew'sharp/jaw-harp has developed as a refined musical instrument in Scandinavia.

The seljefloyte or willow flute is an instrument that has its origins and traditions from the seter or mountain summer farms of Norway and Sweden.

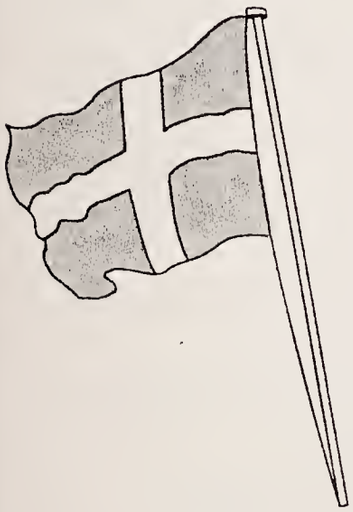
GLAD MIDSOMMAR

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh say, can you see
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
Through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched,
Were so galantly streaming?
And the rockets red glare
The bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
Oh say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?



DU GAMLA, DU FRIA, DU FJÄLLHÖGA NORD

Du gamla, du fria, du fjällhöga Nord,
du tysta, du glädjerika sköna!
Jag hälsar dig vänaste land uppå jord
din sol, din himmel, dina ängder gröna!
Din sol, din himmel, dina ängder gröna!

Du tronar på minnen från fornstora dar,
då ärat ditt namn flög över jorden.
Jag vet, att du är och du blir, vad du var.
Ja, jag vill leva, jag vill dö i Norden,
Ja, jag vill leva, jag vill dö i Norden.

Translation

O glorious mountain crown'd land of the North,
thou quiet thou joyous land, I love thee,
I hail thee as fairest of lands on this earth;
Thy meadows green, the sun in heav'n above thee,
The meadows green, the sun in heav'n above thee.

Thy throne is the mem'ry of great days of yore,
when all through the world thy name was carried,
thou art this, I know, the same as of old.
In thee I'll live, in thee I'll die, thou North Land,
In thee I'll live, in thee I'll die, thou North Land.

Glad Midsommar önskar vi er alla!

Den blomstertid nu kommer (sjung med oss) ...

Den blomstertid nu kommer med lust och fägring stor.
Du nalkas ljuva sommar då gräs och gröda gror.
Med blid och livlig värma till allt som varit dött.
Sig solens strålar närma och allt blir återfött

De fagra blomsterängar och åkerns ädla säd.
De rika örtes-ängar och lundens gröna träd.
De skola oss påminna Guds godhets rikedom.
Att vi den nåd besinna som räcker året om
